

2009 SCA Graduate in the Spotlight

Sarah Conway Stafford, a 2009 Spartanburg Christian Academy graduate, has recently accepted a position as a tactical purchasing agent for Comatrol, a multi-national company in Easley, SC. Sarah has been working with this company since January, 2012 while attending school at Clemson University. Sarah will continue to take classes to finish her degree in marketing while working in this position. SCA is proud of Sarah's success in college and the workplace!