

Class Pets!

The second grade classes have been studying life cycles. To make this study come to life, they kept eggs in an incubator and waited 21 days for them to hatch! They started out with 36 eggs and already 16 of them have hatched. The second graders are enjoying taking care of the baby chicks, and many other classes have enjoyed visiting the new class pets!